Second Semester Executives Take Office

OLD AND NEW BOARDS HOLD JOINT MEET

Six New Commissioners Appointed By Newly Elected Officers

Four Old Members Remain On New Board

With inauguration ceremonies today four elective officers and six commissioners including John "Sky" Dunlap, newly elected president of the Associated Students take over their respective duties.

All appointments for the Executive Board were made by Dunlap the latter part of last week and were accepted by the executive committee composed of the four elective officers. New commissioners and members of the old board met in combination meet Monday afternoon when reports reviewing the activities governed by the various outgoing executives were read. In these reports were many recommendations to the incoming board members concerning student government.

The new Executive Board will include the following officers and commissioners: John "Sky" Dunlap, president; Thomas Clark, vice-president; Ada Marie Hendricksen, secretary; Bruce Harding, treasurer; George Griffith, social commissioner; Wayne Flinn, forensic commissioner; Helen Hendricks, commissioner of girls' athletics; George Blewitt, commissioner of boys' athletics; Richard Robbins, commissioner of "El Don"; and Betty Maloney, commissioner of "Del Ano".

Four members of last year's board hold offices on the new body, Wayne Flinn, Ada Marie Hendricksen, Thomas Clark, and Betty Maloney.

George Griffith, new commissioner of social activities has been active in the Bachelors club and was president of the Tustin high school student body. He was highly recommended for the position which was filled during the past semester by Maybelle Ball. George Blewitt, new commissioner of athletics served as president of the Anaheim high school student body and is himself a track star. Through his connection with athletic

Flinn Named Grand Exalted Bachelor For Next Semester Succeeding Schutz

Wayne Flinn, recently reappointed commissioner of forensics, was elected to the office of Grand Exalted of the Brotherhood of Bachelors to succeed Warren Schutz at the regular meeting of the Bachelors held Monday night at the home of Harry Clayton, 613 West Fairview street.

A complete new set of officers was elected at the meeting, the other officials named being George Griffith, senior exalted; George Blewitt, junior exalted; Jac Crawford, keeper of the write, Paul Bruce, member-at-large and Harry Clayton, Bachelor Bouncer.

A discussion was held on the plans for the Bachelors Ball which were halted by the edict of the Santa Ana Board of Education, which refused permission to hold the ball at the Lake Norconian club on February 28. Various procedures were suggested with the result that a petition will probably be circulated among the students asking for the dance and be

Dunlap Message

"King's Day is a time of memories, fun and change, bringing the students and officers into close contact with each other. The achievements of the outgoing president and Executive Board are brought into strong relief while the program and plans of the incoming officials are outlined.

"On this King's Day, there is every reason to appreciate the outstanding work of King Abbott and his retiring board. They have successfully crossed many obstacles, whipping the affairs of the college into fine shape to assist the new board in carrying on. Virtually every activity of the school is running smooth under the efficient and capable administration of King Abbott.

"It is with extreme pleasure that the new Executive Board assumes office to continue in the path of our predecessors. They have set a high goal for us to attain but each new officer will work unceasingly to maintain the high standards. We would appreciate the co-operation and help of every student and instructor in making Santa Ana college a truly representative school, one that will reflect wherever our interests lie.

"All hail to King Abbott, who has been a most worthy president."

A. S. J. C. Ticket Sale Will End Friday, Feb. 13

It was announced by Bruce Harding, new Associated Student treasurer, that after Friday, February 13, no student tickets will be sold. It was decided by the Executive Board a few weeks ago that only those holding tickets will receive a copy of "Del Ano", the year book.

Previous to this year a sale has been put on just before the year-book has been issued, but the change has been made this year for several reasons. The price of the "Del Ano" tickets previously has been $3.50, but now the Associated Student tickets can be bought for $4.25 and includes many privileges including a subscription to "El Don" for the remainder of the year, privilege to vote, admission to all events sponsored by the Associated Students, reduced rates on all subsidized social events and admission to all athletic contests.

New President Receives Gavel

Abbott Mason, outgoing Associated Student president, is pictured above turning over the gavel to the new president, John "Sky" Dunlap. Dunlap won the position of second semester executive a few weeks ago in the heaviest student election in the history of Santa Ana junior college. Dunlap is the twenty-first to assume the duties of president since the Associated Students were organized in 1920. The gavel being received by the new president was first presented in 1925 when Abe Johnson assumed the duties. The names of every president since Johnson have been engraved on the gavel. They include: Abe Johnson, Virgil Duncan, John McCoy, George Bromell, Hendrik Van Rensselaer, James Smith, Gerald Smith, Lawrence Minge, George Tobias, Willard White, Bob Chapman, George Warner, Abbott Mason and now John "Sky" Dunlap. Agnes McKinstry and Helen Hendricks are the pages.

CLASS ELECTIONS LOOM AS NEW SEMESTER OPENS; VOTING SLATED FOR SOPHS AND FROSH FEB. 11

With the announcement of the sophomore class elections comes the word that the freshmen will name their officers for the coming year Tuesday after assembly by nomination to be given at the class meeting scheduled in room 11 immediately after the assembly.

Thomas Cone, president of the organization since the beginning of the term this fall, slated the final balloting for the freshmen on the following Tuesday. Officers of the class this past semester were Thomas Cone, president; Walter Wilson, vice-president; and Mary Mater, secretary-treasurer. All students of college have the privilege of voting in class elections.

School Battle Song Contest Reopened

It was announced last Monday by Wayne Flinn, commissioner of forensics the last semester, and reappointed for the next semester, that the word writing for a new school song will be reopened next Monday, and will continue for two weeks. The award of $5.00 originally offered is still up, and the two best contributions will be chosen by the Executive Board, and turned over to S. J. Mustel, director of the college band, who will write the music.

The contest was reopened a few weeks ago, before the exams, but two or three contributions were made and it was not worth while to close the contest with so few.

A. W. S. - W. A. A. Plan Hi - Jinks Feb. 13

Friday, February, 13 has been definitely set as the date of the Hi-Jinks sponsored by the Associated Women Students and the Women's Athletic Association. The event is open to feminine members of the school only. The program is to be made up of stunts presented by the girls from the different organizations on the campus. The theme is that of a Mothe Goose Nursery rhyme. Each group has been asked to present one as their stunt.

All women are enthusiastically urged to be present. Admission is free. The only requirement being that all guests are asked to don costumes. (Continued on page 2)

Mason Greet

Hear ye! Hear ye! At this, the greatest of all times on the college campus, I greet you. I can truthfully say that I have enjoyed my work on the board this past semester, and it is with regret that I must give up the post, for it has been a pleasure to work with a group of student leaders who have been so capable and so willing to carry out the duties entrusted them by the Associated Students. I am glad, too, that so many members of the old board are to continue under a new and very capable leader, because I am well acquainted with the work of all these students and know they will carry out their commissions as they are expected to.

It would be rather unnecessary for me to enumerate the many activities of "Sky" Dunlap which so aptly illustrate his qualifications for the office. His record speaks for itself.

Today's assembly will mark the official installation of the new president and his board. All hail to "Sky" and his assistants! Luck and good wishes! —ABBOTT MASON.

500 Mark Nearer On Second Day Of J. C. Registration

480 students had completed registration for the second semester at a later hour Tuesday night, it was revealed by McKee Fisk, dean of Santa Ana junior college. This number is expected to be increased within the next few days to well over 500.

At this time last year, the present total had not been reached; the enrollment was less than 400. The usual second semester decrease is expected however. For the semester just closed, 621 students were registered. Between 550 and 600 students are expected to be enrolled by the end of the week.

Students who register now will not have to go through the seven registration stations, but will complete the registration in the college office.

The college officials worked far into the night for two weeks before the registration days, Monday and (continued on page 2)

New Board Enters Office With Installation

Abbott Mason, president of the Associated Students for the past semester, will officially close his reign this morning in assembly during one of the most impressive ceremonies of campus traditions. When Mason presents the gavel of the organization to John "Sky" Dunlap, president-elect he will officially recognize Dunlap as the new proxy of the association.

Throughout the morning the King's attendants, Martin Bowman and Wayne Flinn will visit the various classes demanding that members of the faculty and students follow instructions as ordered. The King will have control of both the faculty and students throughout the day.

Included on the King's Day program will be the installation of the new board. Members of the outgoing executive board will each make short reports of the various activities which they govern. Those who will make such reports are president, Abbott Mason; vice-president, Warren Schutz; secretary, Ada Marie Hendricksen; treasurer, Thomas Clark; commissioner of "El Don", Oran Asa; "Del Ano" commissioner, Betty Maloney; social commissioner, Maybelle Ball; forensic commissioner, Wayne Flinn; women's athletic commissioner, Marion Parsons; men's athletic commissioner, Thomas Cone. These reports will be intermingled with numerous musical selections from students who will be called on at random by the King.

Lions Plan For New Members; Second Semester Officers Installed Monday

Because of the ruling of the Social Committee, stating that all pledging must be over after February 16, the Junior Lions have had to alter their plans some. Next Wednesday night a rush party will be given to prospective pledges at the home of Willard White, organizer and first president of the local den of Lions. White, also former student president is now a student at Stanford, and has just completed a trip around the world.

Because of the Central Council meeting of the Lions at Fullerton on Monday, February 16, the date of the pledging has been pushed up to Friday night, and the rites will be given at the home of Eric Twist. On Monday, the whole club will join other Southern California dens in a huge meeting at Fullerton.

The installation of the new officers, for the next semester, was important part of the program of the regular meeting Monday night at one of the Homer Chaney, president of the Santa Ana Senior Lions, and Ralph White were present as guests. Members present were Ray Glesner, Leslie McDonald, John Smith, Richard Robbins, Nelson Conway, Omar Williams, Abbott Mason, Oran Asa, Paul Wright, Ed Meador, Willard Minor, Truscott Lindsey, Charles Greenleaf and Elwood Lindley.

PRESS ASSOCIATION

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

BY ORAN ASA

When the Earth's last paper is finished,
And the type is scrambled and pied,
When the roar of the press becomes fainter,
And the sheets are folded and dried,
We shall rest, and by faith we shall need it.

For the way has been weary and long
And oft we have heard that old chestnut:
"Young man, you have quoted me wrong."

Author unknown (the above was probably his last deed on Earth).

AGAIN WE SAY, Hail, King Abbott, ruler of the campus. Mason has ruled over student problems in a most illustrious manner the last semester. The progressive strides of the college have been outstanding. Well earned is the privilege of King Mason, in going down as one of the college's most active student presidents.

AND, TO THE INCOMING President, "Sky" Dunlap, and his board, we extend most sincere congratulations. It is truly the beginning of a semester where possibilities are unbounded.

"Sky" Dunlap, a man who made the grade—from a newsboy to the throne.

AND NOW, AS THE OLD editor is about to drop his pen and type-writer (and long may they sleep). He would like to say that he has thoroughly enjoyed the work on the paper this year, serving the college, and that it is with some regret he discontinues his connections with "El Don", but knowing the ability of the new editor, Richard Robbins, he is confident it will see many more improvements.

THAT FATAL LAST TWO minutes! Six big games—all won and lost in the last two minutes, and every time Santa Ana was on the losing end. Six from 2 to 6 point losses in a row! Last minute jinx is right.

AND TO THE NEW STUDENTS a welcome is extended. May you find Santa Ana junior college as desirable as we have.

IT IS TOO BAD THAT THE action of some one person at one of our recent dances has taken such a toll. It must be remembered that the Bachelors Ball is one of the most traditional dances of the year, and the return to the Lake Norconian club this year is not asking too much, but, because of this one act, it appears that the return will be impossible, unless the Santa Ana Board of Education changes its mind, and grants special permission.

ACCORDING TO REPRESENTATIVES from Compton junior college, the Compton J. C. realizes about $1000 a semester from its student store, and is an immense help to the student organization. Books, pencils, ink, paper, sandwiches, candy, drinks, and other such stock is carried.

Why can't we see why Santa Ana should not have such a thing to help our students as a first thing, and second to help our lagging funds. However, there are arguments, and good ones, on both sides of the question.

J. C. Quartet Tours Western U. S. Tour Auspices Of S. F.

Santa Ana Troubadours, all members of the junior college, were touring this week the western section of the United States on a concert tour sponsored by the Santa Fe Railroad company for its employees located in various towns and railroad stops. Nine stops in all will be made, the last concert being given at Chicago, Illinois. Those persons making the trip including the quartet composed of Virgil Purvis, Marquis Hare, Simon Toelle and James Lukens are Myrtle Martin, director, Nada Smith and Margaret Rust, soloists will also accompany the group.

Officials of the school feel honored that the Santa Ana junior college quartet was picked to make the tour from all other schools of its kind in the Southland.

Outgoing Student Board

Above is pictured the outgoing Executive Board which has ruled over the Associated Student activities for the past semester. Front row: Oran Asa, El Don commissioner; Betty Maloney, Del Anco commissioner; Marion Parsons, women's athletic commissioner; Maybelle Ball, social commissioner; Ada Marie Hendrickson, secretary; Tommy Cone, men's athletic commissioner. Back row: Tom Clark, treasurer; J. Russell Bruff, adviser; Warren Schutz, vice-president; and Abbott Mason, president. Wayne Flinn, forensic commissioner was unable to be in the picture.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

What College Prepares For

The question of how far one's college career should be strictly practical, and how far cultural is one that comes up for settlement in almost every student's life. College in America has changed; where we used to study Greek, we now study engineering.

We used to attend college for culture; now we come for better jobs, for business contacts, and bigger pay afterwards. We used to neglect practical things; now perhaps we neglect education.

Engineers and doctors and other professional men almost have to neglect their training and knowledge in such things as poetry, history, sociology, and art. They have no time. Journalists too often learn a technique of writing news and editorials without doing the reading that gives them something to write about. Accountants neglect the economics and social sciences that give them the proper social background for their later careers.

It is a hard problem to know how to balance one's college courses. One cannot act without knowledge and intelligence; and one should have a wide outlook but one should not by any means divorce his wisdom from its practical application.—University Daily Kansas.

Campus Smoking Evil

Santa Ana junior college is not the only school having trouble with smoking on the campus. San Mateo also seems to have its difficulties. The following statement was issued by the student chairman at San Mateo:

"The rule which bans smoking on the junior college grounds will be strictly enforced this semester by the board of control, although this body has been lenient with the offenders in the past. This term will see a general tightening up of the heretofore lax enforcement of all campus regulations and offenders will be given the maximum penalty for any violations. Furthermore, there will be no more gate-crashing at student body dances. Crashers will be dealt with severely. Also the flagrant lending of student body cards will be suppressed this spring. This is a rotten practice; all students should be spirited enough to buy their own cards."

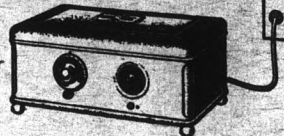

Twenty-five Dollars Per Flunk

Grapevine telegraph brings news of the proposal on the part of one of our large universities to require students to pay a fee of twenty-five dollars for every course in which they flunk. Whether this proposal embodies a good idea or not, it is certain that it presents a remarkable one.

The motive is obvious. Too many students do not take their education seriously because they do not think of it in terms of dollars and cents. Make them pay for poor scholastic work and they will have a tangible reason for not letting their studies lapse. Undoubtedly the plan would decrease the number of students who regularly fail one or more courses.

There would be another by-product of this proposal, if it is carried out. Students worried about the necessity of paying twenty-five dollars for flunking would feel obliged to perfect new and better means of cribbing until that venerable art would attain to heights unprecedented in the history of education.—The Daily Northwestern.

The two organizations sponsoring this event hope it will become an annual tradition. Almost all colleges have an event of this nature and have a meeting of all the women of the school.

The cabinets of the two organizations are planning clever decorations with which to give a festive appearance to the auditorium where the affair will be held. Committees under Marion Parsons, president of the A. W. S. and Helen Hendricks, president of the W. A. A. are doing as much as possible to make this event the most enjoyable of the school year.

Mason Makes Regular Presidential Report

At the end of each semester, the outgoing president makes a written report of the things accomplished under his administration. This report is filed in the Associated Student office for the use of the following presidents. The report of Abbott Mason, outgoing president, follows in full:

Greatest Enrollment

This year's enrollment has been the largest, without doubt, in the history of the college, 627 students, coming from all parts of the United States, registered at the opening of the fall term. Three days, September 11, 12, and 13 were given over to the welcoming of new freshmen, at which time the courses of study were explained and the new students were made familiar with the ways of college life. Freshman handbooks, or "Frosh Bibles", published by the college Y. M. C. A. and edited by Edward Adams, were handed out in the assembly by Robert Williams, "Y" president. These books contained information about college requirements, clubs and organizations, Associated Student activities, the constitution, and anything of interest to incoming freshmen. Bill Reinhardt, sophomore president, handed out the "Freshie" pins, explaining the traditions of initiation.

New Organizations

To fill a vacancy in the social activities of an increased enrollment, two new campus organizations were recognized by the Executive Board. La Compagnia de los Gauchos, meaning "Cowboy Companions", took its place along with the Bachelors and Junior Lions as a service club and has proved itself worthy of the name. Lawson Watkins, Eldon Bragg, Calvin Stillwell, Roy Arms, Frank Mansur, Cardwell Oglesby, Ed Kilbourne, Tom Donahue, and Manfred Mueller are the charter members and Mr. H. A. Scott the adviser.

The Agorian club was formed by a group of commercial students, Jack Crawford, Edward Folger, Kenneth Craig, Bruce Harbottle, Helen Hendricks, Dorothy Dunbar, and Harley Vahl, to further the interests of those students taking commercial subjects. The organization is divided into various departments according to specific purposes, and is under the advisement of Mr. George B. Holmes, head of the commerce department.

Very good support of college activities has been shown by the various service clubs of the campus. Two caravans, an organized rooting section and a football banquet were sponsored by the Bachelors, the latter in conjunction with the Spinners. The Junior Lions were given charge of the Fullerton football rally at which time a large eight-room house was burned and the class battles (the Frosh won 2-1) were staged. The Lions will also be in charge of the annual college "ditch day" this semester. The Gauchos conducted a very successful food drive for needy families during the Christmas holidays. Other clubs and organizations are to put on dances and similar social affairs for the entire school, the O. K. Club having staged the annual O. K. Drag recently at Orange, and the Bachelors now making plans for their traditional Bachelors Ball.

Santa Ana Troubadours

Several different years the Santa Ana junior college has been fortunate in being represented in the entertaining group of the Santa Fe railroad, but this is the first year that Santa Ana has been given the sole privilege. Miss Martin, head of the music department, left February 2 for Chicago with her troupe of Santa Ana Troubadours, composed of Simeon Toelle, Virgil Purvis, Marquise Hare, James Lukens, Margaret Rust, and Nada Smith, to represent the college. They will stop several places along the way for concerts.

Spanish Traditions

This year, in order to more fully carry out the Spanish theme which was chosen for the college several years ago, but which was not adhered to as fully as it might have been, various changes were made. The name of the yearbook which for ten years had been known as "The Algal", a name chosen when the college was small and before Spanish traditions were founded, was recently changed by popular vote of the Associated Students under the supervision of Betty Maloney, yearbook editor and commissioner. A contest was conducted, and the name, "El Ano", meaning "Of the Year", which was submitted by Ray Glesner, won over its closest rival, "Ano Vistas", which meant "Year Views".

Closely following the changing of the name of the annual, Oran Asa, editor and commissioner of the paper, suggested changing the name of "The Don" to "El Don", to conform with the rapidly forming traditions of the college. Because it did not involve a radical change, Asa was authorized by the Executive Board to make the change.

John Crowley, editor of the daily, was then authorized to change the name of "The Don's Daily" to "El Diario", which in Spanish means the same.

While we are on the topic of school publications, it might be well to mention the "Tavern Post", a magazine of student contributions edited by the "Tavern Tatlers". This magazine appeared on the campus December 12, and was well received, causing much favorable comment.

Club Charters

Another thing of importance that was carried out this past semester was the issuing of charters to all campus organizations in order that a more unified and better organized social life might be worked out. Those responsible for this accomplishment are Marion Parsons, chairman of the committee, Ada Marie Hendricksen, and Wayne Flinn. All clubs to be recognized as campus organizations, and to have space in the "El Don" the "El Diario", and the "Del Ano", must be chartered, by the Associated Students. There are now but three organizations unrecognized and these will be given a chance to apply for a charter under the new Board.

Campus Discipline

Copied verbatim from a slip handed out to be signed by all students registered for the second semester in order that no excuse could be made to the effect that offenders were unaware of such a rule, we have here: "Last December the question of campus discipline was brought before the Executive Board. Conditions had become such that some action in regard to smoking and gambling both on and about the school grounds was imperative. The Executive Board, after due consideration of the problem, felt that it would be more in keeping with college status of our students, and much more to their liking, to handle the situation themselves than to force the faculty to take corrective measures. They have therefore adopted a rule against smoking, playing cards and crap shooting. The rule adopted is as follows: "All playing of cards, dice, and smoking, or any other activity that would reflect discredit on our school is prohibited within the campus and to the center of the streets adjacent to all school property."

Battle Song

There has long been a need for an official school battle song to be sung at athletic contests and rallies. With this idea in mind, Wayne Flinn undertook to stage a song contest for which a $5 prize was offered. S. J. Mustol, music director, has offered to write the music if the words are furnished, and since so far but few songs have been submitted, Flinn decided to reopen the contest for two weeks. The board will pick out the best and most suitable contribution to be set to music. The song chosen must embody the Spanish traditions of the college.

Ballot System

This semester a more systematic voting system was installed, due to

Margaret Wilson Elected As New Supreme Spinster

Election of officers for the coming semester was the principal business at the regular bi-monthly meeting of the Sisterhood of Spinsters held Monday night. Miss Margaret Wilson was Hostess, entertaining at her Balboa home. Balloting resulted in the election of the following officers: Supreme Spinster, Margaret Wilson; Sub-Supreme Spinster, Helen Hendricks; Keeper of the quilt Mary Todd Tate; and Mender of the Sox, Nelle Grafton.

Discussion of the plans for the coming semester included the taking in of prospective members. Five pledges are to be added this term. It was decided to hold a rush party of some nature and the new president appointed Ada Marie Hendrickson and Nelle Grafton to make plans for a rush event.

A letter from Sherri Spurgeon, written when she was in the Hawaiian Islands, was read by Betty Maloney.

Other ways of giving service on the campus were discussed and the Spinsters agreed to do all they could in up holding the Executive Board in the matter of loafing about the campus.

Plans for a skit to be given at the W.A.A. and A.W.S. Hi-Jinks were placed in the hands of Happy Parsons.

Members present were Betty Maloney, Happy Parsons, Helen Hendricks, Bernice Keller, Ada Marie Hendricksen, Nelle Grafton, Berenice Summers, Margery Adams, Margaret Gardener, Willie Paterson, Betty Wiswall, Grace Marcher, Phyllis O'Conner, and Margaret Wilson.

the efforts of Wayne Flinn, who introduced the voting booths, and to Jack Reed, designer of the ballots. Representatives from the various presidential parties were present at the counting, along with members of the Executive Board who were not candidates themselves. A strict record was kept of each Associated Student member who voted, so as to eliminate any danger of misunderstanding and friction as a result of the election. The system proved very satisfactory.

In this report I have included only those things which I have considered of most interest to the students and to the incoming president, who is to take over the duties of the office for the following semester. All routine work, and the many minor things that come up, but that are nevertheless important and necessary to the workings of the Board, and to the welfare of the Associated Students, can be found in the secretary's books, which have been so carefully kept by Ada Marie Hendricksen, also in the files of the officers and commissioners.

It is my hope that "Sky" has all the success in the world, as I know he will have, and that he has the cooperation from his Board that I had from mine.—ABBOTT MASON, Associated Student President, 1931.

Tuesday, in preparing for the registration. McKee Fisk, dean, Miss Mable Whiting, registrar, and Miss Carol Erskine, college secretary, are at the head of the enrollment proceedings.

At station no. 2 the student was given advice by his adviser. At station number 3 the student applied for section cards. At station no. 4 preliminary check up on registration cards were made. At station number 5 the student turned in his status slip and received his class cards, and at station 6 students not holding student tickets made their purchases, and at station 7 registration fees were paid. At the last station the final check up was made, and the class cards turned in.

Students also read slips stating the campus rule recently passed by the Executive Board, and signed them, stating that they had the rule, and understood it.

Commissioners Are Named By Committee

activities he is said to be unusually well qualified to take over the duties of this commissioner. He takes the place of Thomas Cone. Helen Hendricks, commissioner of women's athletics was appointed to her position after she had been recommended by several sources as outstanding in qualification for the appointment. Miss Hendricks takes the place of Marion Parsons. Richard Robbins was appointed commissioner of El Don, taking the place of Oran Asa, editor-in-chief for the past semester. Robbins has been managing editor of the publication since the beginning of the term.

Jaysee May Start Signature Book

John "Sky" Dunlap, newly elected president of the Associated Students in his pre-election platform, suggested a permanent book for junior college students, and the subject has been taken up by several other prominent junior college students, and possibilities for such a thing seem bright.

The plan now being worked on is to have a huge leather bound book made, probably twenty inches wide and 30 or 35 inches long. Each graduate would sign his own name, home, what high school he attended, where he intends to continue his education, and other similar data.

First Kings Day Held In 1925 By George Bromell

King's Day was first introduced in 1925 when President George Bromell went out of office. It has since become a semi-annual tradition and each out going president is given one day of absolute authority over the activities of the students and teachers. They are forced to carry out his least wish.

In the past very clever programs have been presented by the retiring King. The first of the semi-annual King's Days was rather limited as the junior college was then housed in the same building as the high school. Classes were ordered to disband, and one of Mrs. Tessmann's classes was ordered to march in lock step the length of the hall singing.

In 1927 when the junior college was moved to the present building, Hendrik Van Rensselaer originated the clever plan of calling prominent students forward to entertain the audience.

Last year when King "Chapple" retired, the activities of the day climaxed in an assembly in the college hall at which amusing contests were held. Pie eating was a popular one. Carol Bertolet, well known collegian was master of ceremonies.

When George Warner, King George II, went out of office at the close of the school term last year an effort was made to make King's Day something more than just a comic program. A program of musical numbers was presented. At the conclusion all old and new cabinet members were introduced. The new executive board outlined their plans for the coming semester.

King Abbott I, retiring president of the Associated Students will vacate office today in favor of "Sky" Dunlap. He intends to carry out the idea originated by George Warner in presenting an unusual program.

DON CAGEMEN DEFEATED BY PHOENIX MEN

Santa Ana Regulars Take To Bench Because Of
Disqualification

Not satisfied with a 28-to-25 victory over the Dons Friday night, Coach George Hoy's Phoenix junior college basketball team came out on the long end of a 24-to-22 thriller staged Saturday night in the Arizona gymnasium, the Phoenix team enjoying a clean sweep of the two-game series.

The contests at Phoenix satisfied an agreement made last year between Coaches Hoy and Foote, who decided that Santa Ana would journey to Arizona in 1931 if the Arizonans would come here in 1930.

JINX PREVAILS

Friday night's game did not hold the thrills that were present Saturday evening, the final contest marking the sixth successive big game the Santa Anas have lost in the closing seconds, the other defeats coming from Long Beach, Compton, Pasadena, Whittier college varsity, and the Phoenix Bears Friday.

Because of too many fouls, most of Santa Ana's regulars were forced to the bench, and although holding a 19-to-11 advantage at the half, the reserves were lost in the final stretch. Playing a stellar game in the first half, Max Appleby gathered seven tallies but was eliminated at the intermission for having four personals.

DUNHAM, SEACORD

Hal Dunham, star forward, was unable to make the trip to Arizona. Dunham has a siege of the "flu". Elwood Lindley, another regular, was unable to make the trip. Emmett Seacord, center and forward, was taken ill on the long journey and was in no shape to play either night. Coach Foote used the Tustin star in the second game; Seacord made four points, more than some forwards make when they are in condition.

Captain Orville Schuchardt shone brilliantly Saturday night. Schuchardt made only five points but handled 12 assists to his teammates. Don Johnson and "Truck" Lindsey played good defensive ball for Santa Ana. Davis, Phoenix forward, was the only opponent who could seep through the Don defense, the flashy athlete ringing up 10 points to be classified as the high point man of the evening.

PHOENIX GAINS

With most of the Don regulars disqualified in the closing minutes, Phoenix took advantage of the fact and finally tied the score at 19-all. Kiyoshi Higashi gave the Dons a two-point lead but Morse came back immediately after to even the count again.

Schuchardt shot a foul for Santa Ana to make the count 22-to-21, and then Morse, who made seven points Saturday, put the game on ice for Phoenix by shooting a field goal and a foul shot just before the gun.

Saturday's lineup:
Santa Ana (22).....(24) Phoenix
Schuchardt (5).....F.....Turner
Seacord (4).....F.....(10) Davis
Appleby (7).....C.....Mouquet
Johnson (2).....G.....(1) Blackburn
Lindsey.....G.....McCollam
Substitutions: Santa Ana—Beatty (2), Higashi (2), Garlock.
Phoenix—Griner (2), Turner, McCall (4), Morse (7).

Wright Off The Press

That Santa Ana junior college will have a baseball team this season was not known today, the outgoing Executive Board deciding to leave the question in the hands of the new board. Abbott Mason, president of the Associated Students, has suggested that at a future meeting of the new board a financial report be given and ways and means considered whereby baseball could be supported. It is not a matter of support in attendance, but in finances, it was learned from Mason. Every reasonable move will be made in order to retain the National sport, it has been assured.

ATHLETIC MANAGERS

Appointed by Marion Parsons, women's athletic commissioner, and approved by the Executive Board, the following girls are now managers of Santa Ana junior college women athletic teams: Neva McDonald, swimming; Lorna Allen, tennis; Eugenia Gire, hockey; and Louella Marshall, basketball.

FRIENDS AMONG US

El Don certainly appreciates the publicity which Santa Ana has been receiving in the columns of the WEEKLY TORCH, publication of the Fullerton junior college. Instead of turning to baby-play and slamming its neighboring rival, Fullerton does the opposite and gives Santa Ana clean publicity. More power to the Yellow-jackets! This is an example of friendliness which should exist among all junior colleges, and which, fortunately, does in most cases.

REGISTRATION AND TRACK

With the process of registration virtually completed in Santa Ana junior college, Bill Cook, head track coach, will be giving his call for cinderpath candidates this week. Many athletes who have had considerable experience in track and field events are expected to greet the handsome athletic mentor. Several candidates appeared in togs two weeks ago.

TILDEN GIVEN OFFER

Big Bill Tilden, tennis star, has received a cabled offer of $50,000 to make a two-month visit to Australia, according to an announcement made this week by Jack Curley, manager of Tilden's professional tennis tour.

TOURNAMENT IS TRADITION
Being a tradition at Spokane university, the Fifth Annual Girls' Basketball Tournament will be held at the University gymnasium Friday and Saturday. Eight of the leading teams of the inland empire are invited and the winner of this tournament is eligible to participate in the National A. A. U. Tournament. Sessions are held each morning, afternoon and evening, with the feature games coming in the evening.

SANTA ANA WOMEN'S ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

Granted a leave of absence last September, Mrs. Ellen Foote, wife of Coach Bill Foote, is not with the women's coaching staff this year. Evelyn Yount, graduate of the Santa Ana high school, has been added to the faculty and is now girls' hockey coach as well as being an instructor in other sporting activities. Reading from left to right: Mrs. Ellen Foote, Alverda West, and Zena Leck. Misses Yount, West, and Leck have complete charge of the women's athletic department here.

DAVIS CUP PLAY

Thirty nations, the second largest entry list in the history of Davis Cup competition, have entered this year's international tennis play, according to the Associated Press. Twenty-eight nations were entered in last year's play. The record of 33 was entered in 1928, the year after France won the cup from the United States.

GLENDALE IS NEXT LEAGUE FOE OF DONS

Two-Point Jinx Cause Of Local Defeats; Santa
Ana Is Underdog

With their two defeats at Phoenix, Arizona now only memories of a last minute jinx which has been ruling the local camp for weeks, Coach Bill Foote's Santa Ana junior college Dons travel to Glendale Saturday night to lock horns with the Buccaneer casaba tossers in the fifth round of Southern California jaycee conference play.

Other Saturday games: Long Beach at Compton, Los Angeles at Pasadena, Fullerton bye.

The same combination that started Saturday's contest in Arizona is expected to take the floor against Glendale. This included Captain Orville hardt and Emmett Seacord, forwards; Max Appleby, center; and Don Johnson and "Truck" Lindsey, guards. Wayne Garlock, guard, has a bad eye but may be in condition to play. Melvin Beatty, Kiyoshi Higashi, Lorry Walbridge, and Elwood Lindley will see action aplenty. Lindsey probably will replace Appleby at center. Hal Dunham, because of illness, will not be in the starting lineup.
